Priority Setting Partnership

The British Psoriatic Arthritis Consortium (BritPACT) worked with the James Lind Alliance (JLA) to run a Priority Setting Partnership (PSP).

They have created a national top 10 list of research priorities for psoriatic arthritis, agreed upon by people with psoriatic arthritis, carers and clinicians. This marks the culmination of the psoriasis arthritis PSP.

The Top Ten was agreed by people who are living with psoriatic arthritis, carers and healthcare professionals.

Connect Immune Research

PAPAA working through our Connect Immune Research partnership, is excited to be part of an innovative new grant call, which brings significant new investment into autoimmune research with the ultimate aim of developing new treatments for multiple autoimmune conditions, faster.

Through our Connect Immune Research collaboration, we've partnered with a charitable trust called the Lorna and Yuti Chernajovsky Biomedical Research Foundation to work together to provide £1.3 million of new funding for research into the underlying causes of autoimmunity.
